

Spin the Globe: Live Locally, Groove Globally
Fridays 10-noon (Pacific) on KAOS 89.3 FM Olympia, and streaming live

=====

THIS WEEK'S SPIN THE GLOBE This week we talked with NYC-based tambin (Fulani flute) ambassador Sylvain Leroux about his relationship with this unique instrument and his new album with the band Source. We also heard an eclectic mix of new releases and old favorites. Our free and legal mp3 is from Nana Osibio. For the mp3 link and the complete show playlist, see http://www.earball.net/spintheglobe/playlists2007/playlist_2007_02_09.htm

LISTEN to the archive of this week's show at <http://www.earball.net/spintheglobe/audio/Spin-The-Globe.mp3>

UPCOMING EVENTS: various Brazilian shows and parties, the Illuminated Ball, the World Sacred Music Festival, Vagabond Opera, Los Amigos Invisibles, Mexico in Seattle, Sin Fronteras, Kane Mathis, Jim Malcolm, Jake Shimabukuro, Ricardo Lemvo & Makina Loca, Aphrodesia, and many more. For details, see the frequently updated Spin the Globe calendar at <http://www.earball.net/spintheglobe/calendar.htm>

SPIN THE GLOBE/KAOS CHARTS

* Ojos de Brujo's "Techari" takes top honors on the Spin The Globe February Top 10
* Vieux Farka Toure's self-titled CD tops the KAOS New World Top 10 chart
* Andy Palacio's "Watina" tops the KAOS New World Adds chart
View all current charts here: <http://www.earball.net/spintheglobe/top10.htm>

NEXT WEEK ON STG: Mardi Gras/Carnival/Lunar New Year music + Jim Malcolm live

THE FUTURE:

Feb. 14: Valentine's Day bonus show co-hosted by the lovely and talented LaVon Hardison (www.lavonhardison.com)
Feb. 23: World Music Generations - world-music-making fathers and sons, mothers and daughters, and combinations thereof.
Mar. 2: TBA - perhaps some live palmwine guitar. details forthcoming
Mar. 9: Indian Fusions
Mar. 16: Music for the Spring Equinox, Irish tunes, and perhaps a live guest

Scott Stevens

KAOS World Music Director and host/producer of Spin the Globe <http://spintheglobe.earball.net>
SoundRoots Global Culture blog <http://soundroots.org>