About this week's guests:

Extra Golden is a collaboration between musicians from the US and Kenya. The original impetus was band-leader Ian Eagleson's work with the late Extra Golden co-founder Otieno Jagwasi researching benga, the popular Western Kenyan guitar music. The band has pressed on after Otieno's passing, touring and recording in the US this past autumn (with visa assistance from Barack Obama!). The touring lineup included Eagleson, Alex Minoff (like Eagleson, from the indie rock band Golden); guitarist / vocalist Opiyo Bilongo (of benga band Bilongo Golden Stars) and drummer Onyango Wuod Omari. This lineup record a smoking studio session at WFMU and we'll hear it on this show.

Extra Golden's debut cd Ok-Oyot System is on Thrill Jockey records; learn the background and purchase via: <http://www.thrilljockey.com/catalog/?id=100373>.

For information or to buy Opiyo Bilongo and Bilongo Golden Stars' new cd What Do People Want, produced by Ian Eagleson on his Kanyo Records label visit <http://www.thrilljockey.com/catalog/?id=100605>.
